Preparing Our Children for Kindergarten

School Readiness Plan: York County Head Start has created a School Readiness Plan, with the help from parents and Education Review Committee members, that outlines numerous components necessary to prepare children and families for entry into Kindergarten. This plan outlines numerous steps in each component that build on school readiness skills for children and families. These components consist of:

- ◆ Education Review Team
- ◆ School Readiness Goals
- ◆ High Quality Teaching and Learning – This component is comprised of the following four areas:
 - ◇ Engaging Interactions and Environments
 - ◇ Research-based Curricula and Teaching Practice
 - ◇ Ongoing Assessment of Child Progress
 - ◇ Highly Individualized Teaching and Learning
- ◆ Staff Development
- ◆ Family, Parent, and Community Engagement
- ◆ Evaluating Child Outcomes
- ◆ Active and Ongoing Communication with Parents/Guardians

School Readiness Goals: School Readiness is a partnership between families, communities, and schools to provide the necessary support, services and environment to ensure all children begin kindergarten ready and eager to learn. The focus of the plan is to outline a set of School Readiness Goals for all children based upon the program curriculum and assessment, Head Start Early Learning Outcomes Framework, Virginia Early Learning and Development Standards, and feedback from stakeholders; including local school districts. York County Head Start program has created the following School Readiness Goals:

Health and Physical Development

To increase large and small muscle skills and feel confident about what their bodies can do.

Demonstrate increasing ability to manipulate a variety of objects requiring large and small muscle coordination.

Cognition and General Knowledge

Children will become confident learners by trying out their own ideas and experience success, and by helping them acquire learning skills such as the ability to solve problems, ask questions, and use words to describe their ideas, observations, and feelings.

Children will demonstrate increasing ability to count to 10, connecting number words and symbols to the objects counted, with the awareness that the last number describes the total.

Social and Emotional Development

To feel comfortable in school, trust their new environment, make friends and feel they are a part of the group.

To help children experience pride and self-confidence, develop independence and self-control, and to have a positive attitude towards life.

To demonstrate increasing ability to identify, label, describe, and manage their feelings.

Approaches Toward Learning

To encourage children to be active and creative explorers who are not afraid to try out their ideas.

Children will demonstrate increasing ability to notice and observe attentively and to seek relevant information about objects or circumstances including similarities/differences, noticing attributes and examining with attention to detail.

Language Development and Communication

Children will improve their ability to write recognizable letters, especially those in their first name, and use letters that represent sounds when writing other words.

Education Curriculum

During the 2016-2017 program year, York County Head Start used Teaching Strategies Gold by Creative Curriculum. Teaching Strategies Gold establishes a framework of child development knowledge, combined with best practices, teacher involvement and family participation to provide high quality early childhood experiences that fosters school readiness. The Creative Curriculum for Preschool is based on 38 learning objectives for development and learning, which are fully aligned with the Head Start Early Learning Outcomes Framework as well as Virginia Early Learning and Development Standards. Our current program and curriculum plans specify goals, experiences, roles of teacher, roles of family along with materials that reflect best practice, research, and sound childhood theory.

Some of the strategies used by our program include: providing a caring consistent environment that promotes positive behaviors; providing a caring consistent environment that enhances child's understanding of self as an individual and as a member of a group; providing a positive social/emotional climate to enhance each child's development; making the necessary provisions to meet the special needs of children with disabilities; providing each child with an education program that meets their individualized needs; providing a balanced daily program of child initiated and teacher directed learning activities; providing a child centered multi-cultural experience; fostering independence in each child; establishing methods to ease transition between activities; encouraging play and active exploration to support development of gross motor skills and to enhance self-confidence, independence, and autonomy; providing opportunities for the development of physical skills; providing opportunities for recognition of letters and symbols that support emerging literacy and numeracy development; engaging children in verbal and nonverbal methods of communication; and providing time for songs, stories, and rhymes.

Program Monitoring

Results of Office of Head Start On-Site Reviews

Overview of Findings

In 2016, York County Head Start had two program monitoring reviews. The Office of Head Start (OHS) conducted a Leadership/Governance/Management Systems monitoring review of the York County Board of Supervisors Head Start program in May of 2016, and a review of Comprehensive Services and School Readiness was completed in March of 2016. York County Head Start thanks the Governing Body, Policy Council, staff, and parents of the program for their cooperation and assistance during each review event. The Head Start Review Reports were issued to Mr. Jeffrey D. Wassmer, Board Chairperson, as legal notice to the agency of the results of the on-site reviews.

The information gathered during both monitoring reviews of the Head Start program were found to be in full compliance with all of the Head Start Program Performance Standards, laws, regulations, and policy requirements.
